

You are so special. You make differences, big ones, and small ones. I can't have imagined her anyplace else. So, I thank you. I thank you for all that you have been to her. I thank you for all that you have been for all of us. We will always remember you. We will miss you.

And in the Fall, when I put my baby girl on that big yellow school bus for the first time, I know that she will be ready; I may not be; but I know she will be.

I am forever in your debt. Please continue to do what you do best; care. My love and sincere gratitude to you all!
